

Icenia & Pavia NAP

(or: the CUB exits its hibernation)

This document is to show a closer relationship between the nations of the Republic of Icenia and the Empire of Pavia. Signature of this paper will commit both parties and all individuals under the flags of these parties to the below:

- Mutual agreement not to attack, destroy, or sabotage known infrastructure of either party.
- Mutual agreement to not directly harm, sabotage, or detriment known citizens of either nation.
 - Particularly, this applies to citizens acting for the benefit of their nation or while a citizen is within either nation.
- Mutual agreement to communicate with the other nation before acting on major issues relating to the other nation.
- Encourage further economic ties between the nations so long as it adheres to the host nation's laws and customs.
 - Particularly, both nations' citizens are free to conduct business, open shops, and have transactions of their choosing within the other nation.
- Enact a clean slate of all* banned citizens of Pavia / Icenia in Icenia and Pavia, allowing all citizens of both nations to enjoy the other freely.

If either nation wishes to make edits to this document after its signing, both parties must have the current Emperor and Archduke of Pavia along with the current President and Speaker of the Senate of Icenia agree on the exact changes.

In the event that the N.A.P. is to be revoked, one party must notify the other that it is revoked officially seventy-two (72) hours before any actions are taken that would violate this pact.
